

ALEXANDRIA WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN HOME

Two Empty Bottles, Which Had Contained Poison, Were Near Her Body.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Melvina Lucas, known as Diana Lucas, a woman forty years old, was found dead in her home, 412 North Fairfax street, today under circumstances which cause the authorities to believe that the woman committed suicide. She was found lying on the floor of her bedroom, with two empty bottles, one of which had contained laudanum and the other carbolic acid, by her side. Her body was doubled up and her hands clenched as if she had expired in great agony.

The police learned the woman had been drinking yesterday with another woman, Melvina Fleming, and late last night they went to a drug store and purchased a bottle of laudanum and a bottle of carbolic acid. The Fleming woman took some of the laudanum and fell into a stupor. This morning when she recovered her senses she went to the adjoining house where the Lucas woman lived and found her body.

Dr. T. Marshall Jones, city coroner, made an investigation and ordered the remains sent to Demaine's undertaking establishment, where he will conduct an autopsy. He decided an inquest was unnecessary.

An important meeting of the board of governors of the Collingwood Club will be held tonight.

At a meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans held last night, the following delegates were elected to attend the annual State camp of the Confederate Veterans of Virginia: Booker C. Hall, J. W. Hammond, Jacobin A. Marshall, F. J. Davidson and J. O. Adams. Adjutant Edgar Wardfield, Jr., who is an aide on the staff of Gen. J. Thompson Brown, grand commander, will also attend. The convention will be held at Newport News, October 20, 21, and 22.

Charles Cleveland, fifty years old, son of the late William Cleveland, who died in Washington yesterday, will be buried from Demaine's undertaking establishment tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Edgar T. Carpenter, pastor of Grace Episcopal Church, will conduct services. Interment will be in Union Cemetery.

A large congregation attended the evening services of the three week revival under auspices of the Methodist churches of Alexandria, held in the Methodist Protestant church last night. The Rev. Lee Stark, evangelist in charge, preached a sermon on "What is a Revival?" Music was furnished by a special choir, led by Henry K. Field. The services will be held every night this week at 7:30 o'clock at the Methodist Protestant church and next week at Trinity Church.

The prize drill scheduled for last night among the members of the prize squad of the Alexandria Light Infantry, for the individual medal, was postponed until next Monday night.

A leaky raspie caused an explosion on the floor of the old Washington Hall building, on King street, at 6 o'clock last evening and brought out the fire department.

On Friday night Washington Memorial Hospital of Pershing, No. 7, Scotts Run, Mass., will meet in Masonic hall and confer the fourth, sixth, ninth and fourteenth degrees.

Paul B. Hulsh, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Hulsh, in this city.

Corporation court will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when a special grand jury has been summoned.

ANACOSTIA.

The regular meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of Emmanuel Church was held last night at the home of J. P. Green, in Potomac street, with a large membership present. J. F. Hagan, director, conducted the meeting, which was devoted principally to outlining work for the winter months. Plans were also made for sending a delegate to the national convention in Atlanta, Ga., the latter part of this month.

The court is today hearing the appeals of property owners in square 550, in Twining City, whose property is to be taken in connection with the reclamation of the Anacostia flats.

Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, E. A. A. M., met last night at 7 o'clock. G. C. Jones, master, in charge. Milton J. Fillius, past master, began his duties as secretary, succeeding John H. King, who had held the position for more than thirty years. A special program was presented last night.

The Utilities Commission has notified the civic bodies of this community of a hearing to be held on the morning of October 22, concerning the question of telephone rates.

Anacostia Tent, No. 7, Knights of the Macabees, met last night with Herman Miller, commander, presiding. Initiatory work was accomplished. This tent will begin a campaign to revive interest in the work among the present members and also to substantially increase the membership.

The Washington Yacht Club has completed its work of changing its quarters from the east side of the Anacostia river, near the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, to the west side, almost opposite its former quarters. The reclamation of the flats will take in space formerly occupied by the club.

More street lights are desired in this section of the District, especially on some of the roads used by persons going into and coming from Maryland to the District. A few years ago a number of them were discontinued, but some of them have been replaced. It is desired that all be replaced.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of St. Theresa's Church met at the church, in Thirtieth street, with Miss Mary O'Leary, president in the chair. Reports were heard from the committees concerning the work of the society.

Citizens of Randle Highlands are to pass their proposal for improvement of L'Enfant Circle, Pennsylvania avenue and Minnesota avenue, and hope to obtain a decision in the near future. This space improved would materially aid in the growth of the section, according to prominent citizens.

Was He Unlucky?

Just Ask This Chicagoan

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 6.—Edward Mesinger, collector for a lunch room syndicate, is the unluckiest man in Chicago. In a hurry to reach his employer's office he burned his breakfast table with coffee at the breakfast table. He missed the street car he wanted and was unable to get aboard the next because it was too crowded. He stood up for miles on the third, and when he left it he was waylaid, robbed, and knocked into the street by three bandits.

As he lay unconscious an automobile came along, ran over one of his legs, and broke it. It was fifteen minutes before the police arrived. One who helped to carry him to an ambulance stumbled and gave the fractured limb a bad wrench.

The fracture was reduced. Mesinger was informed that two of the robbers were captured, but that the third, who had Mesinger's watch and wallet, got away. His employer's money was not taken, but every cent of his own was gone.

False Alarm Struck In Vault of Treasury

A workman knocked his elbow on one of the Treasury vaults yesterday afternoon and the entire department and persons on the outside were startled by the ringing of the great two-foot burial alarm gong, which can be heard for blocks. The alarm came from vault No. 5, one of the old ones in which there had been no money for six or eight months. Hurried investigation showed that a laborer had entered the vault room to get an old file and had touched the lock with his elbow.

SILLIMAN BRINGS REPORT ON MEXICO

President Wilson to Confer With Representative and Secretary Bryan.

An important conference bearing on the Mexican situation is scheduled between President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan with John H. Silliman, the President's special representative, who has returned from Mexico City to report on conditions arising since Carranza assumed power in the southern republic when Mr. Silliman reached the town.

This is the substance of a dispatch to the War Department today from General Bliss, in command of the United States border troops. Warning has been given the factions not to endanger lives or property of Americans across the border.

General Bliss also reported that an American trooper had been wounded by a stray bullet from the Mexican side.

Senate Adopts Report On Clayton Trust Bill

The conference report on the Clayton trust bill, which Senator Reed, Senator Martine, and other Senators charge has been emasculated and made a measure favorable to trusts and combinations, was adopted last night by the Senate. The vote was 45 to 24. Three Democrats voted against the adoption of the conference report, Senators Reed, Martine, and La Follette.

The report was adopted after bitter assaults on the conference report by Senator Reed and Senator Martine. Senator Reed renewed his charges as to the emasculation of the bill. Senator Martine declared it the "cheapest kind of a sop to labor."

Passage of this bill will complete the Administration trust program for an indefinite period. The railroad securities bill has been dropped.

As soon as the bill was passed, Senator Reed gave notice he would introduce a bill carrying the penalties which the conference had refused to put into the Clayton measure and that he would fight for their enactment this session.
